Who are your clients? That's one of the questions you should ask an advertising agent. We answer that question by showing the trade marks of our clients and explaining what their advertising has accomplished.

But this is only one of the points which help you select an advertising agent. There are twelve such fundamental questions, which enable you to determine in advance an agent's ability to serve you.

These 12 fundamental questions are given in our analysis of "How to Choose an Advertising Agent." A complimentary copy will be mailed at your request.
